DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On September 11, 2019, Linda Joy Davis filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program ("the Program"), 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration after receiving a Prevnar-13 pneumococcal vaccination on September 22, 2016. (Petition at 1). On September 21, 2020, a decision was issued dismissing Petitioner's case. (ECF No. 23).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated December 31, 2020 (ECF No. 29), requesting a total award of $17,540.66 (representing $16,902.00 in fees and $638.66 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. (ECF No. 29-4). Respondent reacted to the motion on January 13, 2021, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case and defers to the Court's discretion to determine the amount to be awarded. (ECF No. 30). On January 13, 2021, Petitioner filed a reply stating she would not file a substantive response. (ECF No. 31).

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $17,540.66 (representing $16,902.00 in fees and $638.66 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
